Section 11 of the Madras Village Courts Reg. has been incorporated in the Mysore Reg as sec: 9. Under this section the Village servant usually employed ~~to serve all~~ in carrying messages should serve all summonses & and should act under the orders of the Village Munsiff executing the orders and decrees of the Village Munsiff. Therefore the intervention of the Patel or Shanbhogue seems to be unnecessary. The Village Munsiff can himself direct the village servant

In forwarding herewith report No.12 dated 21st August 1915 from the Village Munsiff of Bellavi requesting that the village patel and shanbhogue, who are literate, may be instructed to execute the decrees passed by him, I have the honor to state that the Village Court Regulation specifies no agency for the execution of orders and decrees of Village Courts within their own jurisdiction. In ~~amny~~ many places the Village Munsiff happens to be himself the Patel or Shanbhogue and in such cases he can command the services of other Village Officers to execute his decrees. But where the Village Munsiff is neither the Patel nor the Shanbhogue it is desirable to require either or both these Officers to help in the execution of the Munsiff's decrees when called upon by him to do so, I request that, if you agree with me, you will be good enough to move Government for the issue of necessary orders in the matter.
